

A

Auction of promises Ask your friends, family or colleagues to promise to do something they wouldn't normally do (hoover, cut their hair) then hold an auction to buy the promises.

B

Big Bike Ride Get on your bike to show your support, get fit and raise funds. No matter what age or ability you are, there's a bike ride out there to suit you! (safe riding)

C

Cake sale Always a popular one whether at church, school, work or in your local community centre. Get everyone to contribute cakes or sweets then sell them on. Or buy them yourself.

D

Dress down day Charge everyone £2 to come to work or school in casual clothes. Challenge departments or classes to raise the most money.

E

Email all of your colleagues to let them know what you are doing and ask them to support you. Don't forget to use your email signature to show you support ASCT! Don't forget to use everyclick as your search engine – a click makes us money.

F

Fantasy football! Organise a sweepstake on this season's teams and pit your skill against the best without even setting foot on the pitch! Works well for other sports too!

G

Gift Aid Remember that if you pay tax you can Gift Aid your donations to make the most of the money you give. Remind people who sponsor you to do this and increase your giving power! Visit: Justgiving.com

H

Hats on! Make a fool of yourself - wear a silly hat for a day and get sponsored. Or encourage friends to do the same and have a hat parade with a prize for the best one.

I

Invite friends to donate money to the ASCT in place of presents for special occasions such as birthdays, weddings and anniversaries.

Jumble sales Hold a jumble or a car boot sale – get rid of unwanted items and raise money at the same time. Ask friends and family to donate junk as well, and increase your profit!

Karaoke nights Get a local pub to donate a room for free, and discover your untapped talents (or not!) when you sing along to your favourite song.

Let everyone know about the work of ASCT Spreading the word about our activities always results in additional interest and sponsors

Matched giving Ask your company to match whatever your work colleagues raise, and tell people this when asking for sponsorship.

No smoking challenge! Do you smoke, or do you have any other habit you would like to give up? Here is your chance – give up, get healthy and make money.

Organise a sponsored cycle/swim/run – whatever your interests. Push yourself that little bit further and ask your friends to sponsor you. Or get glamorous and plan a full-scale ball or garden party.

Publicity Remember that getting publicity through local papers and radio will boost your fundraising efforts and maximise your opportunities – please contact us if you need advice!

Quizzes galore Get the grey matter working and challenge your friends to a quiz night. Run a pub quiz or play any of your favourite games. If you charge for entry and snacks fundraising is a no-brainer !

Race to get fit Challenge your friends to see who can get fit the quickest, putting your new stamina through the paces with hill walks, running marathons or a game of friendly golf.

Stop for Tea Get friends or colleagues together and host one of our tea parties – cake sale optional but highly recommended!

Themed parties Whether you're into James Bond, the swinging sixties or cartoon characters, get your friends to dress up and pay for the pleasure.

Unwanted gifts After Christmas we all have those inevitable scratchy jumpers or socks we'd rather pass on. Get together with friends and have a giggle and a sale, or ebay them and donate the money.

Video night! Show a recently released film, and invite friends to come and watch it. Charge them for sofa space, snacks and even a meal.

Whole heap of change! Collect your spare change from shops and see how quickly it grows into a sizeable heap of a donation. Download our collection boxes and hand out to friends.

X-Factor! Maybe your friends or colleagues have untapped abilities? Host a talent hunt with refreshments. Or if they don't, hire a big screen and watch the TV talent contests, with a sweepstake on the talent!

Yes you can do it! Fundraising can be challenging, but keep going and you will be surprised at how well you do. Don't be afraid to ask and check out what others have done on our website!

Zero tolerance Fed up with work colleagues or families swearing or telling bad jokes. Introduce a fine box and charge a fee per misdemeanour.
